

SPEAKER'S BIO

STEVEN GOMBOS

COMMISSIONER
FEDERAL MEDIATION AND CONCILIATION SERVICE

Steven was appointed Commissioner with the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service (FMCS) on June 1, 2014. Prior to his appointment, Mr. Gombos was a Staff Representative with the United Steelworkers assigned in the Union's District 10 (Pennsylvania). Throughout his time as an advocate, he always appreciated the concept and process of collective bargaining and all that goes with it. He considers being able to aid parties in building a better relationship as not only a great challenge, but also very rewarding.

Mr. Gombos and his wife Lori have been married for 35 years and have two sons. They have a son Evan who is 30 years old and a graduate of the University of Pittsburgh with a doctorate in Pharmacy. Evan and his wife, Molly are the proud parents of Vivian, 2 years old. Their other son, Collin is 27 years old and is the youngest site manager in his Company's history. In his spare time, Mr. Gombos enjoys deer hunting, being outside and taking care of their home and property.
